

This is the identical volume recorded by Dr. Dibden (as belonging to Daniel Moore Esq. of Lincoln's Inn . . . placed by the Doctor (and very justly) among the First important book: being full thirteen inches in height, with the true Portrait & titlepage, & the genuine Verse facing the titlepage . . . There are no spurious leaves, 'tis sound to the end . . . Of this particular Four is the best. That in the Cracherode Collection has the Verse facing the titlepage, intail - In the copy in the of some of the latter leaves have been damaged by a copy - though a very fine one - has been in part washed & beautifully in red morocco by Charles Lewis) rebound . . . old binding - unwashed; unsized; genuine and pure.

It was privately purchased by Mr. Pickering, Bookseller John Gage Pickerside Esq. (to whom it descended from his in January 1841. . . and within forty eight hours after a becoming "consideration" became my property - the newly-acquired treasure to nobody but myself; having he ever be fortunate enough to obtain a matchless copy refusal of it George Daniel. Canon